¹ A mandate or proxy may also be given to a different member or organisation or each of these assemblies. In this case, please complete a separate document for each assembly and circle the relevant assembly for each document.

² Moreover, unless granted an exemption by the Board upon substantiated application, member organisations may only vote if they are up to date with payment of their subscriptions to Emmaus International since the last two General Assemblies, thus for the period covering and including 2016 to 2025. For more information, please see the FAQ on the website.

³ More specifically, to the voting representative of said organisation, within the limit of two proxies held per group.

⁴ To be distributed among the attending organisations by the chair of Emmaus International.

Mandate: A mandate is a document by which the legal representative of a member organisation authorises the member of its choice to represent the organisation and vote on its behalf.

Proxy: A proxy is a document by which a member organisation authorises another member organisation to represent and vote on its behalf during the World Assembly when it is unable to participate. It may designate a specific organisation or be blank.
